San Diego Housing Commission (SDHC) staff will provide an informational presentation about its First Time Homebuyers Programs.

ITEM 7 Informational Item: City and County Legislative Program Updates

The City of San Diego and the County of San Diego Office of Economic Development and Government Affairs will provide updates on their respective 2026 State and Federal Legislative Policy Platforms.

ITEM 8 Informational Item: Annual RTF Community Investment Survey Report and CRA Activities

The RTF's founding purpose is to track and work to increase community investment that increases economic equity and opportunity under the federal Community Reinvestment Act. As part of its monitoring role, the RTF surveys its member banks each year to assess and record their previous year's lending, investments, and grants issued in support of affordable multifamily housing, mortgages for low and moderate-income homebuyers and census tracts, community development, small business, and family financial stability. Staff will present the survey's results for 2024. Members of the RTF will provide presentations on their respective organizational CRA activities.
